Barow Could have taken in more y.n 300 p.s made unwilling to ship som on Capt. Bullcock in copye we advised you the quantitty, Both this Fleets mought Carye with the men of warr tooke in a grate quantittye the Major Parte of the Rest went for B.B.s to the Lew ward Island and Jm.a But few supose the ordars for Thos Islands are to Com in the other Fleet that are Expected and for Jm.a we are Expecting the union Frigatt Capt. Barows and the Ihyar Frigatt Capt. Woadland are Both Expected from Lix.a to Lode for s.d Island your wheat Goes off Butt very Slowly since otherwis Com.d in By reson of the Excessiff mustynes and the Bad Breditt makes tho the Grame to Cooke att apers as fine to the Eay as Ever we saw we can not tell the reson off itt Except it was Raped in Rainye wethar we are afraid we shall be for s.d to Wash it out ~~[illegible]~~ for Genury shall Doe the Best we Can for you the wethar is very seasnoble for the Countrye and the vines now in Blosom we wish for no Raine till the Grapes are knitt which will be in all the next month the Least wett wethar att this Time would Carye away a grate Deall of wine But we hope shall have now the venis Dos not shew so many Bunches amis som years But find them Langer then Ewsall we shall be more to hould you advised w^t Evor pass for your Gouarment we shall Evor Be bound to acknowledge the Favor you were Pleased to Doe us about Mr Corlatts Bills which we take notice you had made Good to our WB the Last year Capt John Smith wch Came to our Island Bound Down to B.A.^s we Printed him for 300 — By the Recomandation of a person who thought Mought have Confidance in for which Sum Capt Smith Gave us his Bill on Mr John Lowdon and Mr Ebnezar Corr and Co. which our WB advis us will not be Excepted for By Barrow we sent the 3 via of his Bills Down to Mr^y Corlatt Robt Dwethar with our Power of Attorney Praying of Them the Favor to Recomandar it of him and Being intimate with the Govr acquainted him of it who voluntarly Promised us all the assis-ance that Lay in his power and ordered us to Tell our Frind w^t he had Promised us and Like wise ap Lye Them Letters to him and they should find Much adres and if it was not too much as we thought Reasonably Expect that the Fault should not be his now^t we wo^d Crave the Favor of y^o is to Mention the Thing to Them which wold make them more valiant and Stering in it for which we shall Be still further obliged to y^o since our Last we Dear from any Plac nor non Said but will all be Redy Except the Barke which we understand is designed for y^r Pitty

Gentlemen Madeira y^d 18th June 1707 @

The foregoing was the 24th ultimo by the Margarett Gally, who went Hence wth a faire wind wch lasted some dayes wch we hope Lett her Pretty forward in her way Home where we wish her safe to arrive & the mam^a Prove to Content Inclosed we send you the Second Bill of Loading & Copy of the Invoyce

We have begun our Harvest in Parts a bout ye Citty, & in a few dayes will in other parts farther remoate, tho y^t the Sale for foreigne Come is neare over for these Sum^r mos. till the natives have Expended their owne Croops, we shall loose noe opperteunity in the Sale But shall be forced to goe trusting it out for the next yeare, for the State of our Island is such that nothing sells for money y^t is any thing Considerable, little money being in y^e Island, & y^t daly decreasing tho y^t you are woonder fully mistaken to think your wheat would make money, as yett we have not made 150^l in money — nor doe we Expect shall Now any more, tho y^t you Cant believe we can be able to make your good y^t wheate now out of the Cost of these wines, yet may depend we shall not drive you to Supply us wth more Bill in Lib^s y^t w^t our meare necessity obliges us to, for we ever studyed to make you as Easie as we Could in that as well as all other Points. but of y^t more Hereafter as opperteunity shall offer, in the interim Suppose m^r Hepney will have y^t Need full orders as usuall.

The Weather Continues faire for Both the Harvest as well as the vintage, & we hope it is likely to Continue from the wettern Islands we have advice of a Plentifull Harvest tho y^t we believe Come will decline in Price Porta Santa Computed to have upwards of 250^m! wheat & 12000 Mo^is of Barley

Noe ship has bin dispacht since our Last but we have now in Port wch is since arrived Capt Owen Phillips in
