whereof the Complaynant (as they believe) was one brought from the pts beyond the Seas into this Port of London severall pcells of black silke grograme Turkey grogrames Mohaires Naples Organsine silke Raw silke Chamblett and galls, and payd for the same aswell as the said subsidie given and granted by the said act of Parliam^t, as also the said Imposicon soe set by the said lres patents as aforsaid, to his said late Maties use to the officers or ffarm^ers of his said late Matie in that Port accordinge to the said booke of rates lres patents and scedule aforsaid. And our said late Soveraigne Lord Kinge James of blessed memorie by himselfe and his officers and ffarmers from the said 29th day of September in the 6th yeare of his raigne untill the tyme of his disease wch was the 27th of March in the 23th yeare of his raigne of England received and had the said subsidie and imposicons, and the same paym^ts were also continued to our Soveraigne Lord the Kinge Matie that nowe is after his accesse to the Crowne in the same manner w^thout any further speciall directions then before herein is alleadged that these knowe and remember untill the 26th day of Julie in the second yeare of his Maties raigne, at wch tyme his Matie by his highnes lres patents under the greate seale of England bearinge the day and yeare last mencioned directed to the Treasure of England for the tyme beinge the Commissioners of his Maties treasurie for the tyme beinge, to the Chiefe Baron and the rest of the Barons of this Exchequer for the tyme beinge to the Customers Comptrollers Searches and all other his Maties officers of his Ports or belonginge to his customes for the tyme beinge, and to all other his Maties officers and lovinge sub^ts whom it should or might concerne, did declare his will and pleasure to bee That all these duties upon goods and marchandizes called by the severall names of customes

University of Kansas
Kenneth Spencer Research Library
MS D153