9:00 Wood house Jorp (2) [illegible] feeding from oak to oak at left and calling.
9:04 Virginia Warbler worked up through limbs of oak to uppermost branch and warbled, then flew to another tree & warbled. In working in branches held mouth open. Another Warbler was working in branches below.
9:06 Slight wind, can hear wind blowing on top of Big Baldy.
9:07 2 Spurred Towhees singing on escarpment to right.
9:08. Mourning Dove calling to north.
9:09. Virginia Warbler warbling to right
9:09 Spurred Towhee singing in oak top, left on approach and flew directly down into base of trees.
9:10 Wind increasing. Clear skies overhead.
9:16 Jane Pine Siskin flew overhead calling; flying to the north.
9:17 Virginia Warbler singing in top of oak to right; flew across trail to top of another oak & continued to warble.
9:21 One Chipping Sparrow singing (locust like) in oak. 19 more feeding in oak and on ground below. When approached they flew in several directions offering their plaintive & mild chirp. The Chirp of the Chipping is much more plaintive than the sharp, pronounced chirp of Virginia Warbler.
9:25 Can hear one Chickadee two note call.
9:26 Two Spurred Towhees on either side of trail scalding.
9:27 Grosbeak still calling behind.
9:28 Two Towhees singing, one on escarpment the other on bank of hill.
9:29 " Virginia Warblers singing on escarpment to right.
9:32 Two White Throated Swifts flying along escarpment to the S. E.
9:33 Spurred Towhee scalding near trail to right.
9:34 Leaving the head of the 2nd Valley and starting around left edge on trail to divide looking down into Battle Creek drainage. Last Cedar Covered ridge beyond divide.
9:35 Horned Toad in trail on west exposure. Four inches long and moved rapidly into dry leaves under oak trees.
9:36 Heard Swifts ahead.
9:38 Now on divide. Wind stronger.
9:39 Coopers Hawk flying irregularly over oaks to right below
Two Towhees singing & 3 Virginia Warblers warbling to right below.
9:42 2 swifts flew over divide
9:45 2 Virginia Warblers, one of them in top of oak and one in lower branches moving from one limb to the other.
9:45 Spurred Towhee scalding on divide.
9:46 Virg. Warb. Warbling in oak to left
Mertensia well developed on divide. Oaks still with curled leaves about 1/4 inch long, still holding bud shape. These oaks are not as well developed as those at spring. No strong wind now, but can hear wind on top of Baldy. Very Warm. Skies clear. Bambyluda increasing, two singe.
9:52 Virg. Warb. in Mahogany chipping
9:45 Now looking down into Utah Valley and can see Pleasant Grove and mouth of Battle Creek. Top of Mahogany ridge
9:55 Hear & see swifts to north.
9:56 At Destination and looking straight down into Battle Creek below.
9:57 Northern Violet Green Swallows just below and near, height point.
10:02 N. V. G. Swallow still favoring the immediate space just north of heighest cliffs. Two Swifts flying together always in evidence flying from bottom to top of Canyon. Observed one to preen feathers of