booke, and caused about five or six hundred of them to bee printed, and that in and by the said booke, and the epistle thereof to the Reader, hee did most wickedly trayterously and seditionslie set forth these libellous false and seditious Assertions followinge vizt

1 That wee doe not read of greater persecucon or higher indignitie done upon gods people in any Nation professinge the Gospell then in this our Island, especiallie since the death of Queene Elizabeth.

2 That hee termes the Prelates of this Realme men of blond and enemies to God and the State

3 That hee saith this is the mayne and Maister sinne wth is established by a lawe, the establishinge and maintayninge of Bpps wth in this Realme, And that Ministers should have voyces in Councells both delibe= =rative and decisive

4 That hee avowes the prelacie of our Church to bee Antichristian and Satanicall, and termes the Bpps Ravens and Sye=maggotts that they prey upon the State.

5 That hee termes the Canons of our Church made in anno 1603 Non sence Cannons 6 And in another place most impionslie and blasphemonslie disallowes, and condemnes that devont and reverend worthilie observed Cere= =monie of kneelinge in receiveinge the sacramt alleadginge that the suggestion of false feares to the Kinge by the Prelacie, and the seekinge of theire owne unlawfull standinge brought forth that revived spawne of the beast, Kneelinge in receiveinge of the sacrament.

7 And in another place of the said booke hee affirmes that the Prelates corrupt the Kinge, forestallinge his Indgemt agat the good and goodnesse.

8 And in another place of the said booke most andacionslie and wickedlie calleth his Maties royall Consort our gracious Queene the daughter of Heth

9 And in another place of the said booke most impionslie seemes to comend him that comitted the barbarous and blonddie act of murtheringe the late duke of Buckingham, and to aggrevate and encourage others to second him in like wicked and desperate attempts to the destruction of others.
