happens that

Beamsley Perkins Comander came to us from Boston w[illegible] and other Species, and our Orders being to send said Ship doune to the Bay of Campecha, with liberty to touch at Barbados if a freight offerd to the value of £200 — and considering the Impediment of the Embargoe in England, the small quantity of Wines gon to that Island wee have agreed with the Comander to touch there, and shall lade for your acct about 160 Pipes, at 25 p.c. Pipe, and it is probable we may ship Ten Pipes more, not doubting that hee will carry as it were gratis, for the £200 — wch wil make 170 Pipes, and then the freight wil be cheaper wee shall doe what wee can to serve you, and a better Occation could not offer, because wee have several Conveyances now offer for England, viz, this via Bristol, another for Exeter, and a small Dutchman for Holland, besides in fourteen dayes another opportunity via Lisbon but if these or some of them had not happened, wee would not adventure to ship the Wines, for want of advice for your Insurance, in all things wee act for you as if it was our owne proper Concerne

Wee are God be praised at 30th ditto, and now send you Coll. Abraham De Peyster Bill for £100 — on Coll. Charles Lodwick, when received please to carry to our Credit, —

Here is arrived a ship from Lisbon, brought us Letters from London to the 19th January, doe not find that they write any thing of Warr, but are resolved
