

1917

(3.)

About 70 men came in from San Francisco yesterday. I heard a company sing "On Wisconsin" and give some University yells, and believe me it sounded great. I am still in doubt about the aerial photography, but the sergeant said I may be called for any minute. This Radio Co. is a fine bunch and I will be satisfied to stick with it.