We passed the hat here this afternoon and bought a ~~$25~~ Victor with some records.

About 45 of us bunk in this room so we expect to get a good bunch of records.

This morning the fourth & fifth sections of Co. A 6th helped unload a shipment of saddle horses and pack mules from El Paso, Texas. Believe me it was a lively job to lead that bunch, two at a time, from the cars to the corral. One fellow from Co. B-6th was sent to the hospital with a mule's "thumbprints" on his chest. We were off this afternoon so I went to Lavenworth City, which is a little larger than Beloit. A lot of fellows went
