The statement I have ready to forward as soon as I can obtain from Judge Edmunds a statement of the proceedings before him — After waiting without any guard all the morning the prisoners proceeded with Mr Cox of Coffey county as their Atty to Tecumseh to find Judge Edmunds and see what he would do in the case.

Mr Cox was at the agency during the payment and promised me to draw up a statement of what he saw, that I might forward it also, and as you know him from visiting the office frequently I thought it would be more satisfactory to hear what he would say than, the agent or any of the parties implicated —

She seemed to think that Mr Symmy had acted more from ignorance than any intention to do wrong, and sustains Mr Symmy's statement that he did not call upon the troops to prevent the arrest — Robbins has sworn to this statement, but Cox says that Robbins told Symmy that I must be mistaken if I had so written — a copy of Robbins affidavit accompanies my report to the Secty of the Interior, and if false will cause him some trouble — It has rained so hard and there has been so little communication that I have heard nothing from the Judge — This part of the affair I mean bringing prisoners here charged with crime, and the Deputy Marshall's
