Mr Robert Heysham

Madeira 22 June 1703

We confirme the aforegoing Coppy of our last since w:ch arived the Employ Capt Richards Comander w:th your's of 13th March & 15 April & Capt Furpin wee have received the sundry goods according to Bil of Ladeing and have now almost completed the Ladeing of the Pink pursuant to your order — she wil saile in few dayes —
Wee note your approbation of the wines Laden p the Seahorse and hope they may meet a good Markett because they were wanted in that Island your Brother Mr William Heysham sent up the Marygold Sloope wherein hee was ttalfe concerned w:th some others who wee dispatched three dayes past shee came from thence the 27 March & then wines sold for £29 a 30 p pipe wee wish good Success — hee writes that hee designs for England in the Fleete that may bee going in this month but wee presume when these ships of the last advice att Barbados they wil not come away soe soon —
Mr Morgan in the Lydia & A Brigantine call'd the Tryal Capt Mr Digott Comander parted from the Fleete and were taken together by a Man of warr & Privateer from Rochel bound to S:to Domingo they took out of the Lydia all the goods & burnt her and the Brigantine was ransom'd by the Merchant abord for £100 —
Capt Mr Davidson seperated from the Fleete but had better success meeting w:th a french ship w:th 14 Guns & 8 Pederoros & 40 men whom hee attacked two hours in the Afterhoon renew'd it againe in the morning boarded and took the French man who had ten men more then himself hath brought the prize into this porte Laden w:th wines from Jhenevife bound to Lisbon w:ch being incapable to send for England and for want of men is now taking out the wines abord his own ship in order to carry them to England — it was a fine action done without stratagem but by Dint of Resolution and conduct because hee laid the french man abord & entred his men w:ch is more then usual when the force hee had was Inferiour —
