we as yet can't tell the Exact Sum that shall be forced to draw on you wrai[illegible], but will be as sparing as can, therefore desire you to give Mr. Stepney orders to accept our Bills when appear. we suppose it may be about 2000 £ — Rest the rest to go towards y.r part of the goods & Duricon & the wheate that came last yeare & the Employ acct. Sales of which shall send you & the La fine Gally who came from Barbary & loads home, by whom shall confirme this & add what farther occurs — Our Mr. D. is Sensible of the great peace of Service you did him in recovering the Debt of Mr. Leake, for which he gives you many thanks, and shall ever hold himself obledged to you for the same — We Remaine with due Respects

S.r Since writing the above we have concluded to send 10 p.ns of Brandy in the Lefine Gally Capt. John Rogers a vessell of 8 guns & 12 men who may saile in a weeks time, for what we desire is, that in case Mr. Bolton should be out of Towne that you then, as soon as this comes to hand Insure for us £200, on her, the reason why we write in this nature is because the other will saile ere loone, that we are affraid, the time it will spend to have Mr. Boltons order out of the Country if should be there, will be to longe, we crave the favour of you to doe it for us, & advise Mr. Bolton the same. We Remaine yours ut supra B. D. M.

Your most Humble Serv.ts
Bolton, Darell & Morgan

No. 98 —

KU
MS
84 A:55