Gentlemen

We Confirme the few lines above since w.ch have not bin favored w.th any from your good selves tho have had the ann Galley Capt. Hinde w.th a loading of Corne from Plimouth who proceeds to Jamaica, the Corne trade is more over done y.s years then it was the last, a great Deale will be lost we believe befor the market can be able to take it off, we heare there is more expected from England as well as from other parts, we wonder at our friends sending more w.ch we have wrote them soe often to the Contrary, advicing y.t w.t was already in the Country we have had a bout 1000 m.t Imported since the first of this month, —

We have begun to talk our new wines & find they Prove good & have begun to ship them off, but the Price is not yett broake suppose they will be opend at a bout 20 Rs their are but few old wines left the vessells y.t are here will gor nigh to sweepe the Country Cleare of them, since our last has bin dispatcht a Ketch for Corasao, a sloope w.th 40 p.t wine for R.B.s another for antigua & we have now in the Road q.r ann Galley loads 300 p.t wine for Jam.ca a New England Brig.t w.th 90 p.t for ditto the unity Galley Capt. Oliver via Ireland w.ch puts ashore some Provisions & takes in 50 p.t wine for St Christophers, the antony Galley Capt. Munke from Pensilvania bound for Monserratt, a Brig.t of a west Country Barke for R.B.s, a ship from New Yorke w.th staves & Horse w.ch returnes, and the Dutch ship w.ch makes y.e Conveyance bound to amst w.th Succatt, but intends to touch in England, Pray doe us the favor to send us some wooden Hoopes in some of the vessells you have that may come here that
