& we have now in Port the many Ronn Capt. Godwin for virginia, a Dutch ship for Coralaw, & a large Portuguez Loading for Brazill, wheat plentifull & has but allow ratio & the new Crop wch. is Pritty large is Just at hand, wch. in a few dayes will be begun in Parts about the Citty, the vines are now in flowers & very full so in Case the weather continues seasonable as it has hitherto done & no Raine falls in 15 dayes to beate ye. Blossoms off shall have the largest vintage ye. has bin knowne for many years, but of ye. most from time to time, the Rest of the west India men ye. were left behind have bin Expected here a great while I suppose it cant belong ere they appeare; what has detained ye. m.d we are apt to Computed it to the want of men & the fitting of the Grand fleet, w.n they come home their stayes will be longer then the Last ye. may have time given us to doe the business they come about, the Price of wine is much at a stand but the People care not for selling to see the fleet arrives, so that the market will be influenced according to w.t orders they may bring w.th ye. Indorsed goes the Invoyce of the 24 p.t wine aboard Bulwike amounting to 591. 0.99 rs/ w.ch have noted to ye. Debt, we shall Confirme ye. by ye. vessell w.n Returns who is ye. designed for the west Country w.th w.t worms Kip.n shall add w.t more may have offred soe w.th the tinder of our but Respects Remaine

Gentlemen

ye. most Hum.ble Serv.ts

Bolton, Darell & Morgan

No. 86

KU
MS
84A.64