A well-balanced, powerful Vanderbilt basket ball team pulled away in the second half Wednesday night to beat Nebraska, 66-48.

Al Rochelle, 6-foot junior guard, tallied 22 points to lead the Commodores.

He was followed by Babe Taylor with 14 points and Charles Harrison, 6-6 center, with 13. Harrison also picked off 19 rebounds.

Kubacki Scores 14

High for Nebraska was 5-9 sophomore Guard Jim Kubacki with 14 points, mostly on set shots. Kubacki had six field goals and two free throws.

The teams were evenly matched the first half with the Huskers leading at 12-11, 14-13 and 16-15.

But Vanderbilt, eighth ranked nationally, pulled out to stay in front by at least three points. The half ended with Vanderbilt on top, 30-27.

The Huskers rallied to 30-29 on Jim Thom's basket as the second half opened. That was as close as Nebraska came during the second half.

Huskers Have Drouth

The Huskers trailed, 43-39, until 10:55 was left. Then Nebraska had a drouth while Vanderbilt picked up six points.

From there the Commodores moved ahead easily, going into a semi-stall and taking advantage of Husker mistakes.

The loss was Nebraska's first on the home court and gives the Huskers a 2-5 season mark.

Vanderbilt is undefeated with six victories.
