Messrs. Robert and William Heytham

Sirs

we are now att the 24th Instant confirming the foregoing to be copy of our last tow.ch have butt little to add nothing occurring only the arrivall of the adventure Capt. Jennings from Boston wth pipe staves old and fish bound to Jamaica this we design you by a Sloope wch carries the second vias of our Bills wch we drew on Messrs. Stephney for ye. acct. wch we doubt not but wil meet wth your concurrance to the expells spent. in Copy are stil here and now must only tel the Holydayes are over we crave leave to kiss your hands and remaine

Sirs

Madeira ye. 20th January 1707@

The few lines aforgoing we confirm to be a Coppy & now come to add wt. smale matter has since ocurd, the 12th Inst. Her Maj.tys Ship speed wee arrivd here & the Sidwell Galley from Kingsale who in bad weather parted wth the 4 saile of Victuallers bound for Nevis. the former proceeded for Bbs. wth a Briqt. belonging to Boston wch loaded here about 190 pts wine wherof we believe the will come to a good markett. the latter went for Jam.a wth Her provisions in Compe. of the vessell mentioned in Coppy & a Briqt. the ships yt. went to the Islands have had Bad Success yt. year having now advice ye. price of sugar are gott. low ye. it has disopointed the Island of the wheate they Expected. & for the Heat has made it scarce, as yt weather has bin Cold & Rainey have not begun to Rack ye. New wines, nor as yett have tasted a pt. in some parts they make some Complaints in others not, wch we hope shall finding in generally Pritty good, Which is wt. offers for wishing you many a Happy New Yeare Remaine

Gentlemen

your most Hum. Serv.ts

Bolton, Jarrell & Morgan

Here Remaines in port, only a small sloope & a Briqt. for antiguea

Idem RDM