Gentlemene

We confirme the forgoeing to be a Coppy of our last since w.ch none from y.r Goodselves, atho the vessell y.t makes y.r Conveyance was freighted by our Mr. to fetch the mam.ta — we have but little English wheat now left unsold, but our Harvett will be large w.ch will be begun towards y. latter End of y.e month, the vines are but now in flower, soe y.t we cant advise you of the Liargeness of y.e vintage but shall hereafter, all we hope for now is faire weather for the least Raine would doe a great deale of Damage, noe Irish vessells has bin here y.s yeare soe y.t the Island has bin all together w.th out Provisions. a Cargoe or two would soone Goe off, nor have we Ever Known y. want of Goods there now is. we are much disapointed in the Phenix being taken on whom Mr Bolton advises us y. had shipt us a large Cargoe but having inteled it would be little or noe loss, As yett we have had but few ships to load wines w.ch makes y. Natives more Complyable y.n they were in the Begining of the yeare & should it soe happen as some friends advise us, w.ch is that y. west India Convoy will not touch here, wines wille be cheaper y.n at y. Beginning of y.e yeare but the want of ships makes y.n at present w.th out Price, since y. fleet y.t was here about y.s time 12 mos very few wines has gone to BB.s soe that we Believe wines [illegible]

in demand there on the 16.th abrill all y. virginia Outward bound fleet w.th their Convoyes appeared off y.s Road & the next day thee of the men of warr w.th about halfe the fleet came in here for water but their stay was but very short the weather proving dirty & soe y.t on y. 20.th the Rest tooke againe Capt. Huntington & the remainder of them kept the sea, tis the first virginia fleet we Ever heard touch here before, since our last has bin dispacht the Life of Middelbrough Capt. Jacob Polley w.th 220 B.s wine for Coraisow & the Wm & John Capt. Wing from Boston w.th Staves, Oyle & fish who returned home, we have now in Port two Portuguez ships & a Ing.r from Liza the two former proceeds to y. Islands the latter for Barbary & a Genoves bound for Liza by whome we shall confirme y.s we thanke you for y. care you ordred Mr Stepney to take of our bills. from whome the other day we recd a Letter advizeing us they were discharged. We have nothing further to add but to tender you our due Respects & Remaine
