

(3)

men. There is a Warner speedometer on it and it has to be kept at a certain speed. Each of the ten men take a hand at it. Believe me it's a gay life running that "grindstone" under a hot Kansas sun. I wish you could see how a station is set up in the field. This afternoon five of us run a field buzzer telegraph out over the hills. We hooked on to a fence and then connected on to the fence again.