A fellow certainly makes some good close friends in a camp of this kind.

The Signal Corps is about the highest branch of service in the Army and there is none of the "wop" class that you find in the Infantry. At Jefferson

Barracks about half of the 23rd Recruit Company were hardboiled Chicago rough-necks. You don't see any dice or cards here. Just now they posted a notice that any gambling

would mean three months, with a cute little shotgun tickling the victim in the ribs.

Any one that ~~th~~ likes to split wood, <sup>now</sup> ~~now~~ the officers' golf course, hoe the corn,
