Dear Mr. Garvin:

I am turning your letter and check over to Mr. Earl Falkenstien, financial secretary of the Athletic Association, with the request that he do the best he can for you.

However, he told me last night before the Nebraska game that the day before yesterday every seat had been sold for the Oklahoma game.

I do not know what he can do in regard to temporary seats, but I know he will do the very best he can for you, because he makes a definite effort to accommodate all the old Jayhawkers. You can count on that!

Thanks for your good wishes for the Allen family, and I assure you the wishes are reciprocal.

Yours sincerely,
