Dear Cob:

I have been so tied up with my summer program of teaching and directing the summer recreation that I have neglected thanking you for your very kind letter of May 29th. I took it home and our entire family appreciated it more than I can tell you.

I want also to congratulate you on the special section of the Daily Oklahoman of Sunday, June 8, which was devoted to the Carpenter Paper Company.

With kindest personal regards, I am

Sincerely yours,
