Wee are now passing our Bills for Lo[illegible] that our Bills may find due honour, & [illegible] se y[illegible] to Mess.rs Clarke & Comp.y that you hav[illegible] advised them that upon Notice you wil doe it, that we may suffer noe [illegible] if Mess.rs Hacksaw & Comp.y or Mess.rs Brooke & Gulston or a[illegible] you that they shall want Effects to discharge what wee orde[illegible] to them what they beeneccessary, we draw in this Occation upo[illegible] & hope we shall not want anything —

Please to speake to Mr. Samuel Eyre, who we hope hath put current [illegible] wee advised him that wee should draw on his acct. on Mess.rs Depuy & C[illegible] wee may receive noe prejudice — in a little Time wee shall be able
of the Wheate past wherof stil remaines unsold, wee never had such Tr[illegible] Corne before now — Wee write you after this Manner because Some may think that it is nothing to have a Bill protested, more then to pay [illegible] another occation, with us it is 18 p.r Cent upon the Bill, besides the Disc[illegible]

Wee cannot tel how Matters may governe in this Conjuncture, it seemes to if a Warr with Portugal is unavoidable upon the makeing of the Leagu[illegible] France &c, and if soe, wee may run a greate Hazard in our Persons & Es[illegible] wee trust to Providence & remaine —
