Mrs. W. R. Loder, Hutchinson, First Vice-President

Mrs. B. K. Goodwin, Emporia, Convention Chairman

If your work or business doesn't mean for you a hard row to hoe, very likely it doesn't have a future worth digging for. —Sunshine Magazine.

There is no problem on earth so large that its cause and cure do not root back in individual responsibilities. —Fosdick.

FORT JEWEL SHOP
519 Commercial
Emporia, Kansas

??????????????

Mrs. W. R. Loder, 1st Vice-President

Question—We have members other than our delegates who are interested in attending the convention. May they come and do they have to register and pay the $1.00?

Answer—After you have filled your quota of voting delegates, the president or alternate who shall be elected by the association and one delegate or alternate for every twenty-five members or major fraction thereof in good standing as shown on the books of the State Treasurer, you may send visiting delegates, but they are not entitled to vote.

Standing Rules April 17, 1934

It shall be a Standing Rule that when a Unit has registered its full quota of accredited delegates for the Convention, any member wishing to attend be given a visitor's card, or when a Unit has not its full quota of accredited delegates registered, any member wishing to attend must pay the required registration fee of $1.00 for a visitor's card and this card shall be transferable; also any person being called to appear on the program be given a courtesy card for that one day. It shall also be understood that all evening sessions are free to the public. Standing Rules April 7, 1936. A fee of $.35 shall be charged visiting delegates for attendance one day.

Question—Does the council president have a vote in the convention?

Answer—Art. VII, section 3 of the state by-laws. Each council shall be entitled to be represented at the convention by its president, or alternate chosen by the council.

Question—If a delegate is a member of more than one unit and is representing more than one unit, does she have more than one vote?

Answer—Art. VII, section 4. Last part of the state by-laws reads—A voting member shall have but one vote, although entitled to vote in any one of several capacities.

RIVERSIDE GARDENS CO.
Flowers for all Occasions
Emporia, Kansas
Phone 1048

"Our Permanents Make Permanent Customers"
Cinderella Beauty Shoppe
E. L. TRIPP, Mgr.
Phone 523—624½ Commercial
Emporia, Kansas

Mrs. Ben McCamant, Wichita, Secretary

GRADE "A"
NATURAL MILK
For Infants and Adults

Produced and Handled Under ★ City
★ State
and ★ Federal Ordinances
Phone 4-2165
Wichita Natural Milk Producers Co-op Assn.