

Take any music you want

Wed. Aug. 29, 1917

Dear Marie,

I am waiting to be surprised with your "bright idea". Let it shoot. Some fancy dress and ribbon, I'd say. If you had one of these bugles tooting in your ear every morning at 5:15 you wouldn't need Andy to pull you out. A large megaphone is set up on a post and a bugler puts his music box up to the mouthpiece of this horn and sounds the different calls. The one that sounds best is "taps" at ~~9:45~~ 10:00 P.M. First one bugle away over the hill will sound then a nearer one, then one still nearer. Finally the bugler in back of
