Saturday night

My dear friend:—

Just a note to tell you that all's well here on this Hospital — after working 6 weeks with orthopedics, I have spent another 6 weeks with outside attributes for men who are about to return to duty or are being discharged — Here one learns that war is serious, horrible, dirty, and that there is no such thing as glory — no medal, no sympathy, no nothing puts the missing arm leg or eye back on the man — it's hard to make some of them smile but I've found that being natural and friendly just like at home in Kansas
