record is 1167 points in 77 games for an average of 15.15 points per game. He was chosen among Alvin Dumler's list of outstanding Southwest Kansas 'backs' in football.

P.S. — Phog, these yearly scoring records and his entire high school average, were compiled by me, personally. The reason, I never kept any record of his scoring his freshman year was because he played with the second team.