to invade the Kingdome, That the Lord Cobham the ynnth of June last did meete with the said Sr. Walter, Cobham was in Durham house in the Parrish of St Martins in the ffields, and there and there had Conference with him how to advance Arbella Steward to the Crowne and Royall Throne of his Kingdome; and that then and there it was agreed, that Cobham should treate wth Aremberge Embassador to the Arch Duke of Austria to obtaine of him 600. thousand Crowns to bring to passe their intended Treason, It was agreed that Cobham should goe to Albert the Arch Duke to procure him to advance the pretended title of Arbella from thence (knowing that Albert had not sufficient meanes to maintaine his owne Army in the low Countries) Cobham should goe into Spaine to procure the King to assist and further the pretended title, It was also agreed the better to effect all those Conspiracies, that Arbella should write 3. Letters, one to the Arch Duke, another to the King of Spaine, and another to the Duke of Savoy, and promising 3. things, first to establish firm peace betwixt England and Spaine, secondly to tollerate the Romish and Popish Superstition, thirdly to bee ruled by them for the Contracting of her marriage.

And for ex-

And for effecting of these traytorous purposes, Cobham should returne to the Isle of Jersey, and should finde Sr. Walter Rawleigh Captaine of the said Isle there and take Counsell of him for the distributing of the foresaid Crowns as the occasion and discontentment of the Subjects should give ground way, And further that Cobham and his brother Brooke did meete on the 9th of June last, and Cobham told Brooke all the Treasons, to which Treasons Brooke gave his assent, and did vowe himselfe to all those, And after on the Thursday following Cobham and Brooke did traytorously speake those words, that there would now bee a good world in England, till the King (meaning our Soveraigne Lord) and his Cubbs (meaning his Royall issue) were taken away, And the more to disable and to deprive the King of his Crowne, and to confirme the said Cobham in his intente, Rawleigh did traytorously publish a booke falsly written against the most iust and Royall Title of the King, (knowing the said booke to bee written against the King) which booke Cobham afterwards received of him; And further for the better effecting of those traytorous purposes, and to establish the said Brooke in his intente, Cobham did delive the said Booke to him on the 14th of June, and on
