the lawes of this Kingdome afford for the Subject to gayne the present possession of his goods, wrongfully detayned Shuts for that the Court of Exchequr hath not to grant Replevyns, nor the Court of Chancery any Replevyns returnable into the Exchequer, Therefore as also for divers other defects and imperfections in the said Informaton as aforesaid doe write, the favr of this most hono.ble Court demurre in law and humbly demaunds the Judgement of this most Hono.ble Court, whether they shall be compelled to make any further or other answere Hereunto: And as to the repayring of those defendts to the wharfe of the said Dartnell supposed to be the third day of January last, and attempting to carry away their goods without paying any duties and the assaulting beating wounding hurting one of the Officers attending at the wharfe, and the then and there endeavouring gett into their possession the said goods in his ma.tie possion, and in the Custody of his ma.tie Officers and for wt, noe Customes or duties payd, and they assembling themselves on the fifth of January upon the Customehouse key, and ran into their Company, their Servants Porters Carrmen, and their forrible attempting to land and carry away divers goods uncustomed, and forrible lading of three carts with divers goods and grandizes, and using of any outrageous seditious reproachfull words other then those in the said

Informaton particularly mentioned, the defendts therefore say that the said Charges contayned uncertainly and contrarily, viz.t, uncertainly in that it is not alledged what duties were due for the said goods as it ought to have been, as before therein is alledged, nor what the said goods were, nor who were assaulted beaten wounded or hurt (if any were) that it might appear whether he were an Officer or not, that they might diligently justifie or deny or confesse and avoyd as the Cause should require And contrarily in that it is alledged by the said Informaton that the taking of the said goods out of the custody of his ma.tie officers at the wharfe of the said Dartnell is the taking thereof out of his ma.tie possession, whereas by the Informaton it selfe it appeareth, by the orders of the Exchequer therein mentioned that out of the Officers custody, if they were not delivered by the Officers into his ma.tie Storehouse (wch was held to be his ma.tie actuall possession) they might lawfully be replevyed And for further Plea herein, they say that the said goods wch they attempted ~~land~~ and endeavoured to land and carry away were their owne proper goods & the said goods being at the wharfe of the said Dartnell (called Customehouse key) in his possession were the said fifth day of January (wch) they conceyved to be the time meant by the said Informaton for endeavouring to take the said goods away replevyed out of the hands of the
