

ARMY AND NAVY
YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

"WITH THE COLORS"

(5.)

1917

but Sergeant Gillespie is allowed to groom him. I don't see how the army can use a saddle horse that is wild enough to plunge at a man and knock him down with his front feet, when he ain't even within arms reach of him. I think I got out pretty lucky and am thankful that no blame was placed on me, for being careless. We are learning to saddle and mount our horses