now. I suppose we will just be learning to ride and then I'll be transferred. Co. A of the 5th Bn. is already having mounted drill but we only have ten saddles for 75 men so only a few of us have even been on one. Each of us will have a horse when we are in the field except the men who drive the horses on the wagon wireless set in my section. It looks pretty neat to see a company of men ride by with each horse in his proper place in the column. When Captain Mitchum called for photographers, I signed up as an
