exhibited here. Men of standing & wealth would not blush at the most revolting perfidy - nothing but personal pain would have the least effect upon them. They cared not a straw for public sentiment. & I have always felt since the affair of the 14th that more was done in five minutes, on that day, for humanity, than could be done in C by any other course of proceeding in ten years - It has completely settled the question, I think, for it has awakened attention to it - & people must all see, if they look, that we are right - At my trial, an attempt was made by the Atty. Gen. & others to get me put into prison again & not admitted to bail - Since then I am told, they are talking of impeaching the Chief Justice for admitting us to bail - I hope they will agitate - for the more they act in that manner the better it is for us - Our trials are put off till April - The speculators were much offended at it; & the Mayor told the judge he might as well discharge us, for by that time, nothing could be done with us - They feel vindictively because they can't keep me out of the Legislature - 27th Mayor Bigelow died of the cholera night before last at San Guadeloupe & was buried here, at noon - Quite an effort was made to make a show but it was a failure only about twenty persons attending his remains to their last resting place - He has lived in S. F. a long time, on account of fear of personal injury here - The Common Council voted him 10,000 dollars the night that he died & the members of the Council had it attached
