Burban County, Ko. T.

March the 7, 1858

Dear Sir I imbrace this opportunity of sending you a few Krisp sentences to let you know that I am well at present and to answer yours of the 17 of January which came to hand a few days since which gave me Great pleasure to hear once more from your Goodly Land I received 2 from father at the same time which gave later news from your Country than yours or Mocks Leters it Brought the news of your Last plow Boy and was Glad to hear that Rebecas helth was so good but only have to Regret that I Cannot send you such faverable News from this unfrendly Land however I will give you the Best first the wather is very good the grass in the Botoms has started very Nice Calle is Livin out on the Range the Botoms has a Kind of Coarse Grass that will grow all winter and it has Kin so warm that Sun up the Botoms Looks quite Green. now for Sumthing E B I have Never Given any thing of the Kansas troubels in any of my Leters but now I shal give you a hint of them as I know you will hear it by way of