I guess I never had any real friends until I came here among these fellows. Your two pictures came fine. Marie, you can't imagine how they made me feel. You don't look like the same
laughing little girl
that sat in the canoe
holding the duck.
(Have you got that picture?) No one could see your two pictures without seeing what a big, warm-hearted, lovable girl you are.
I showed them to Stock
and he said,
"No wonder you are
