March 26, 1858 92.

To the Senate and House of Representatives of the U. S. of America in Congress assembled.

The memorial of Margret Skicket represents that she is a half breed Osage Indian residing in the Territory of Kansas, that her name previous to her marriage was Margret Rennau, and that she is the same identical Margret Rennau, mentioned in the 5th article of the Treaty of the 2nd of June 1825, made at St Louis Missouri, with the Great and Little Osage Indians, as by reference to the 5th article of said Treaty 7 Vol. P. 241, U. S. Laws it will more plainly appear. That it is stipulated ~~with mon~~ she the said Margret was entitled to one section of land that subsequently intermarried Skicket an Indian of the Delaware nation, and with said husband emigrated and resided with his nation a distance of 150 miles from her former home.

Subsequently her husband died, and left her a widow destitute of means for her support, since which she returned to her former home to obtain the section of land reserved for her use, which was guaranteed to her by the Government in said Treaty. She discovered that a half sister who had assumed her name, had drawn from Government the value of the land in money that the Margret has not received a dollar. That by the terms of a treaty at Fort Gibson West of Arkansas with the Great and Little Osages 7 Vol. P. 576. U. S. L. In this last Treaty it is stipulated that Government will purchase the reservation designated in the Treaty of June 2nd 1825, not exceeding two dollars per acre.
