sweaters any time now. I have been wearing my army overcoat which was issued a few days ago. It has been pretty chilly but the coat was the best bit too much. I sure will appreciate the sweaters. They are quite popular here.

Can't see why you gave up the trip to Michigan and am mighty sorry you didn't go.

I think we will go South soon. Each of us has his own horse now but the new saddles haven't come yet. We were scheduled to start mounted drill Sept. 15th.

Well I must write to Lauretta and thank her for a box of bon-bons.
