"WITH THE COLORS"

Fri. 11-2, 1917

Dear Marie, I have just finished writing the "gun" letter so I will write another short note and enclose the instruction sheet in this.

I sure do wish I could be there with you but no such luck. Here's hoping you will get lots of fun out of it. It will keep you busy tutoring to pray for its fodder, but it's a great sport - how is it by you? I am glad you like it so well and want you to keep it for me while I am gone just as if it were yours. You will find the dope

is that black tin box. 1917
If there are any of my cartridges in sight I burn 'em up.

See, if I could only be there to help you. I like this life here, but there is one big thing missing and
that's you.

How are you
coming with the dancing?
Hope you will get a chance to try the horseback riding. It sure is good sport.

Forget about the chevrons.

Don't plan on sending me any thing. May think of sofa stunt later. If there is anything I can do speak out.
Yours, Forrest.

Don't forget that
