Dear Marie,

Was glad to hear that you are getting along so well in school. I am afraid that my report for that grade does not come up to yours.

Let's forget all about that letter. It really was my fault anyway — I am pretty well acquainted with the feeling that prompted you to write that way.

Wouldn't you feel better if you went out more for good times among your boy and girl friends?

Anyway I do understand perfectly, and like you all the more for your mistake - (for it surely was one).

This is a fine afternoon for riding but I don't feel quite so "funny" now.

I took and got a few pictures this morning; if they are good I'll send them later.

We are going to move into
"winter quarters" this week.
They are wooden cantonment barracks. The brick barracks will be occupied by reserve officers in training.

We worked with picks and spades Thursday and Saturday morning at the "shacks."

Here are a couple pictures that I took Saturday 3rd.

Yours, B.F.

Be sure to have
Roy take that picture.

Sgt Westrum leading. Others:
Weber, Gorney, Howe, & Meyers.

This is correct - thanks to Ben, who was pulling on the rein I had hung on my arm.
