1917

I was awfully sorry to hear about the bad cold and sure do hope you are feeling good now.

Some time I hope you will be sufficiently considerate of my feelings to tell me when you are getting cold the way you did Saturday. We have our troubles with the cold weather, too. Here's the day's program.

Rise at 5:45. Assemble in ranks in front of barracks at 5:55. Reveille at 6:00.

Calisthenics 6:00 - 6:15.

The stars are still out and it's so dark that one can hardly see what way the drill master is doing each exercise. Make up beds
