and clean up, 6:15 — 6:30.

Mess call at 6:30.

Breakfast of pancakes, butterine, syrup, grape-nuts, canned milk, sugar, coffee, stewed figs.

After mess we sweep out and fuss up the barracks.

Assemble for drill at ~~7:25~~.

7:25. March up to stables, (a little over a mile and a half), get there at 8:00 and groom our horses until 9:00, then saddle up for mounted drill out in the field. We assemble in regular section formation and ride to the drill grounds in a column of twos.

This morning it was so cold that when I walked
