(95)

Teacher – Sammy, can you tell me who is the speaker of the House?
Sammy – At our house it's Ma, mostly.

(96)

Tourist – White man heap glad to see red man. White man
h hopes chief feeling tip-top this morning
Indian – (calling squaw) Hey, Mary, come over and listen to this bozo
The great # (97)
visitor – Say, who laid out this town anyhow?
Native – Nobody yet, it ain't quite dead.

98

Drill Sergeant – You've been training for six weeks now, and what have you learned?
Recruit – I've learned why soldiers aren't afraid to die

(99)

Small Brother (to sister's suitor) Are you a baseball player?
Suitor – Why, no, what makes you think so?
Small Bro. – Well I heard sis tell ma you're a pretty good catch.

(100)

How come you stopped singing in the choir, Butch?
I wasn't. I was one Sunday and somebody asked if they had fixed the organ. #

Mr. Maurice Griffie
Miss Ruby Lee Brown

(101)

Recruiting Officer (to new recruit) What's your religion?
Recruit (promptly and very earnest) Militia sir.
Recruiting Officer: No, no, I said religion.
Recruit – Oh, religion, sir, I beg your pardon. I'm a plumber.

(102)

Two prominent Clevelanders flew to Detroit the other day. One of them was visibly nervous, and admitted it.
Ha, Ha, (laughed the other) What are you afraid of? I've flown lots of times. Look at me – I'm not a bit nervous. No? asked his companion, then why are you holding your paper upside down?

(103)

A Mississippi River steamboat was stopped in the mouth of a tributary stream, owing to the dense fog. An inquisitive passenger inquired of the captain the cause of the delay.
Can't see up the river – was his laconic reply
But I can see the stars overhead – the passenger replied
Yes, but unless the boilers burst, we ain't going that way.