35 Art. — About 20 Augt. the Ds finding the time of her Delivery near, caused notice to be given to her Servants, that she would remove to London, on the 25th Inst: & that they Sh: go the Day before to prepare the House — The Proponent says, the Ds had no Intention to go to London on 25. but intended to send all her Servants, except those she meant to intrust with her Pregnancy, that such Delivery might be secret. . . . . .

36 Art. — About 4 in the Morn: of the 23 of August, she was taken in Labour & soon after 4 Wm Frays her butler, was ordered to go to Kingston, as fast as possible; there to take a Post Chaise & four & fetch her Lyeing in Nurse, (Mrs Tyson) who lived in Heyden Street Piccadilly; & to leave a written Message at Dr Hunters, immediately to go to her Grace, who was in Labour; that Frays went to Tyson, ordered her to get ready with all Expedition, & that he in the interim went to Dr Hunters, who not being at home, Frays left the Message, with orders to be sent to Dr H. instantly, wherever he was, & then returned with Nurse Tyson to Combe —

37 Art. — Her Graces Labour Pains coming on quick, & She anxious to get the Servants out of the House, before she was delivered, about 6 in the Morning ordered her Housekeeper, Cook, Coachman, Postilion, & a Footman, to be sent to her House in Town immediately: under pretence, she would herself dine in Town that Day — The afd Servants all went before 8 —

38 Art. — Before they went, (to keep the Delivery as secret as possible) Dorothy Mothersole the Cook (who was the Mother of Children) went into Mrs Dubarqs Room, & there saw Child bed Linnen, laid out, in the same manner, as if a Child was expected to be born, which she took notice of, as laid for her Graces Delivery; & from which she suspected, the Ds was then in Labour, no other Person in the House, being at that time, suspected to be big with Child — . . .

39 Art. — Shortly after the Servants left Combe, Wm Frays & Tyson arrived, who was immediately shewn up to the Ds's Bedchamber, who she found in strong Labour; & was soon after delivered of a Daughter, in presence of Tyson, Read, & Dubarq. & no one else — That the Ds has never notified her Delivery to the Duke, but hath used all possible means, to keep it secret from him & from all her Relations & Friends

40 Art. — That Dr Hunter, who was then attending a Labour in Stanhope Street, receiving the afd Message, ordered his Servant to go to the Crown in Silver Street, Golden Square, & bid him Eskot send a Chaise & four, to him in Stanhope Street, where it came: That about 9 in the Morning, Dr H. came out of the House, where he attended, & ordered the Chaise to drive under Hyde Park Wall, & wait his coming; he said, he Sh: only step in at Col Fitzroys) 2 doors from the House where he had been) & be there in a Minute or two . . .

41 Art. — A few Minutes after, Dr Hunter coming to the Chaise, & observing his own Coachman one of the Drivers, he was very angry, & rebuked his Officiousness, & particularly said, what could be in your head, to think of coming yourself, as you know, you are so remarkable, & so well known, by almost every body, to be my Coachman . —

42 Art. — Dr Hunter, on getting into the Chaise, ordered the Postilion to drive him to Putney, & from thence to Combe; when he came near the Ds's House he got out, (it being then almost 10 o'clock) ordered the Postilions to walk the Horses about, & on no acct to come near the House: Dr H. then got over some Rails, & went thro, the Grove to the House, & did not return to his Chaise for some time, & the Postilions drove their Horses under a Hedge . .

43 Art. — The Ds as afd was delivered before Dr H. came, & as soon as he arrived, was shewn into her Graces Bedchamber; but she had notice of his Coming, ordered a Gauze or Veil to be thrown over her face to conceal it, which was done, & Dr H. finding all things right in her Delivery, ordered her proper Medicines, during which the Child was dressd for Dr H. to take away with him, & had on a Mantle, ornamented with Silver Spangles, & when dressd, was rolled up in a dinner cloth so that no part could be seen, with all the Address Dr H. & Nurse Tyson, Dubarq & Read could invent, (so as not to stifle such Child) to make it appear a long Bundle, & being so rolled up, Dr H. abt 12 at noon, took leave of the Ds, & returned to his Chaise, but first assured the Ds, the Woman he had procured for a Nurse, had a very fine Breast of Milk; that he had been, or sent somebody to taste it, & solemnly promised, such Nurse should be his particular Care; just as Dr H. was going Mrs Dubarq said, "Sir, stay, a minute, wont you let "the Ds see her Child before it goes?" or to that Effect. Dr H replyd "by all means." & accordingly the Child's face was uncovered, for the Ds to see it, which She did, & it was then covered up again as before . . —

44 Art. — Read attended Dr H to the Chaise, & carried the afd Child rolled up, like a long Bundle, which, from the length, & the manner it was carried, both Coachman & Postilion took for a Child, not being carried like a Bundle, held in the Hand, or under the Arm, but in a laying Position, with the Womans hand underneath, & Lyeing lengthwise on her Arm: that She put the Child into the Chaise, & then Dr H. got in, pulled up the Blinds, & ordered the Postilions to drive towards Kingston but being got a little way from the Ds. House, ordered them —
