kansas city,mo., dec.28.... oklahoma runs int o its eternal problem of the big man here monday when it the sooners tackle this year's big seven tournament guest team, washington, in the final of four first round games. tipoff time is 9:45 p.m. at municipal auditorium.

kansas state's defending champions and nebraska lead off at 8 p.m. before what is expected to be a capacity house of 10,5000.

looming over the sooners in this one will be dean parsons, 6-7, 232-pound junior center, who subbed for the all-american hook-shooter,bob houbregs,last year. the guy with the size 17 shoe is no houbregs, but he is good enough to have totaled 40 points in the huskie's two games with kansas state last week. more important he is big enough to destroy bruce drake's crew.

take a look at what has befallen the redshirts to date this year: illinois beat them , 86-61,at norman with the 6-9 illini center,red keer,roaring to a new fieldhouse record of 34 points; ohio state beat them, 73-64, with the 6-7 paul ebert notching 28; oklahoma a & m beat them 65-46, with 6-10½ bob (auto) mattick rambling for 25.

in every scarp the enemy post-man has been the killer, the villain and the key. oklahoma tumbled wisconsin from the undefeated ranks two weeks ago,69-65, chiefly because bob waller, the drake's 6-6 center, shutout badger pivot paul morrow from the field. the latter, a 6-7½ speciman , could collect only three free throws. he had been their leading although parsons is a half-inch shorter than morrow he ~~is~~ also is 30 points heavier, an item that is weighing increasing more important under the backboards in modern-day basketball.

however, if waller, who is not tall as modern post-men go, gets a little help from his mates, he likely can slid a low-scoring handcuff on the huge huskie. the success or failure of this picketing job wil go a long way toward deciding the issue.

drake disclosed ~~that~~ his club has been drilling intensively ~~zz~~ at defense since the aggie game december 16. " excep t against a & m our offense has been good enough ", drake said here ~~sunday~~ as he sent his club into a workout on the auditorium planks ~~xtx~~ sunday afternoon. " but our defense has not been good enough. we also must improve ~~taxingvx~~ rebounding and take better care of the ball when we have it. " drake will start his usual lineup of sterling jones (6-1~~4~~ and ron blue (6-3) at forwards; waller , center; a ink mceachern (6-0) and lester lane (6-0) at guards.

wasington comes in winless in four games. however coach tippy dye, who guided the club to the pacific coast title and third place in the ncaa last year, maintains his sophomore crop..... he brought seven of them here ..... is the best he's ever had at seattle. not a single regular from last year's great mccutchen-mcclary-houbregs- cipriano- koon quintet remains.

kansas city.... for once phog allen's analysis of his ~~kuamixx~~ basketball team's victory was no more pungent than the time of day.

" we've had experience with those afternoon games and we don't like it ", he continued. ~~mmyvgumuxthutvx youvwinxv~~ we like to play 'em all at night over here. " what the doctor meant was that only first-round loser s ~~mmsvdumpsdx~~ play matinee contests, the consolation bracket being unravl led all the way by that method. the jayhawkers have lost only once in first round play, bowing 48-58, to kansas state in the 1949 affair.

dobbs ~~kixvkvsvquivkvgvaisvixxthexthirdxvarivdvixxhsix~~ whisked two successive 20-foot right hand sets early in the third period to help demolish the buffaloes' sagging defense, and overall collected 13 points, his seasonal high. he used only nine shots from the field in scoring six goals.

kansas city,mo.,.dec. 29..... nebraskaxx rules an eight-point favorite over oklahoma here tuesday night xx in the xxxxxxxx cleanup end of the semfinal round of the big seven tournament. but there will be scant surprise if bruce drake's sooners edge their way into the king row against the missouri-kansas winner.

here's why. nebraska is a notoriously hot and cold club. the cornhuskers played their best game in tournament histiry monday night in upsetting kansas state, 78-74, in the leadoff match of the final night of first round play. it isn't likely the cornhuskers xxxx will play anotherlike that for a few outings. they lost the ball on bad passes only twice xxxx throught the second half and came from as far behind as 13 points.

the pace was terrific all the way and nu horsed thr ugh the entire closing 20 minutes without a substitute.

meanwhile the sooners were arming themselves with a new university single-game scoring record in whacking washington's guest team, 87-77 with a 48-percent shooting night.

it was described as " a big victory which will help our confidence " by drake. morever, ou broke the game open in th final half ... it was 42-42 at intermission ..... with its regular center, bob waller, playing less than five minutes. he drew his f urth fouk with 5:37 remaining in the third period and returned for only 17 second in the fourth before drawing his fifth. walt morrision, 6-10 junior, had to plug the breach the remaining time.

" it was our bes overall offensive effort of the year ", drake said. ". even then we didn't look good the first half. we were taking too many widl shots instead of working for the good ones. " at any rate the 87-point landlside bested the olf record by four points, the former mark wasn't even a year old having been established in that 83-81 triumph over colorado last february at boulder.

lane took personal charge of the record. he drove for his 11th basket of the night with 1:54 left, which pulled the sooner scpreboard to 83; added two free thro s a minute later and poked his 86th and 87th points with a right hand jumper just before the final buzzer.

as usual the sooners will give away height in the match with nu. the huskers will hold no wide edge at center with the 6-7 bil johnson , but the forwards, don weber, and wiklard fagler are 6-4 and 6-5 respective, and one guard, fred segar, is 6-4.

kansas city, mo, dec. 30... oklahoma's collision with kansas here wednesday night for the big seven tournament basketball title, will be only the second between the two teams in eight years of tourney play. oddly, the clubs' first meeting also was a title contest also, the sooners wrenching a 52-49 verdict on paul courty's twisting lefthander in the final minute of play.

courty's mates that year included wayne glasgow at the opposite forward; bill waters and marcus freiberger at center; and ken pryor and cat merchant at guards.

the sooners went on that year to share the conference bunting with nebraska, losing fifth district representation in a playoff with the cornhuskers.

by no stretch of the imagination can this year's redshirts be classified with that brilliant unit of five years ago. nevertheless the current brigade moves against the jayhawkers are the most torrid club in this tournament.

ou came into the meet with a drab 1-3 record. all its done in two nights is smash its old single-game scoring record twice with a pair of back-to-back 48-percent shooting exhibitions and score the second major upset of the meet by derailing nebraska.

the latter was accomplished in tuesday's ~~xxx~~ 86-70 semifinal massacre of nebraska, which had tumbled kansas state's defending champions only the night before. ou buried washington, this year's guest team, 87-77, in monday's openning round. the old single-game mark was 83 points in the one-basket victory over colorado at boulder last year.

it isn't likely the sooners will enjoy such point harvests against kansas. the jayhawkers will be the best defensive club, next to oklahoma a & m, oklahoma has next to date. they have ~~xyavx~~ much more floor speed than nebraska and the big man, in 6-9 b.h. born. the latter has scored only 29 points in two starts here, but poses the major problem for ou nonetheless. sooner center bob waller must spot him three inches.

waller because of his speed down-court and outside shooting ability, in turn, ~~wwlvxmax~~ certainly will be ku's no. 1 problem. he can beat born on the break and pull him away from the goal on defense. meanwhile, the jayhawkers' new passel of sophomores which coach phog allen is employing without hesitation will be getting their first bewildering look at the drake shuffle.

as for oklahoma's thrashing of nebraska, it was ~~xxxxxvx~~ a fantastic second-half route. trailing, 34-40 at intermission, the drakes ~~xxxxxxx~~ sped repeatedly on the break to demolish the huskers, 32-11, in the third period.

guard lester lane led the charge ~~w~~ by collecting 13 of his 20 points during this stanza. waller kept the flame lit through the anti-climatic fourth period with 10 of his 33 points. the latter figure is the meet's individual single-game high to date. lane's 20-point outburst against nebraska ~~xxxx~~ ~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~ vaulted him into the individual tourney ~~xxxxxx~~ scoring lead at 48.

~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~ both waller and lane's demonstrations were direct results of what drake tabbed " the best half an oklahoma team has played since 1947. " the sooners ripped nu reaptedly on the break, blocked them off the bacboards, ~~xxxxxxxxx~~ grabbed most of the deep rebounds and s un a fine job of team defense.

kansas edged missouri, 69-67, in the first game despite limping through the last 15 minutes without a field goal. the hawkers , however, ~~xxxxxx~~ covered fiercely and ~~xxxx~~ dragged down every ~~xxxx~~ defensive rebound in the late clutch to reach the king row for the fifth time in eight years. like ou, kansas has bagged one previous meet title.

kansas edged missouri, 69-67, in the upper bracket semifinal, despite limping through the last 15 minutes with but one field goal. missouri set a new tournament high for missed free throws at 23 , muffing six clusters of one-and-one efforts in the final half.

it will be the fifth king row appearance for the kansans, who , like oklahoma, have bagged one previous tournament flag. tipoff time is 9:45 . nebraska and missoiri meet in a 8 p.m. opener for third place.
