Mr. Joseph P. Grey,
Executive Vice President,
Hotel Whitcomb,
San Francisco, Calif.

Dear Mr. Grey:

Your very good letter of the 11th is at hand. I appreciate your kind words.

I assure you it is not too much trouble to send a copy of the article that we wrote on basketball. This may seem a trifle deep for you with all the statistics. It is a research article, and not an article for popular appeal. The coaches could analyze it a lot better than the laity, but of course this is the kind of stuff they are looking for because they want to improve the play of their teams, and only by meeting progressive competition can they get ahead.

With all good wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
