

"WITH THE COLORS"

(3.)

We rode all afternoon yesterday. As soon as we hit the hills we left the main <sup>road</sup> ~~road~~ and hit for the tall timber. You should have heard the hooting and yelling when we <sup>got</sup> in the woods. There is only about six inches of snow on the ground and the ground underneath is hard and slippery so we <sup>not</sup> could trot very much. Even at that we had a lot of fun. Our new first sergeant is a fine fellow. The other one was promoted and Sgt. Ryan took his