such a thoughtful gesture. But, confidentially, I don't think so.

We have heard from him three times, and aside from missing his family and friends, he is busy and thinks he will like it all right — when he really gets into the swing of it.

Thanks again.

Sincerely,

Nord Ethel.