

"WITH THE COLORS"

Friday Feb. 22, 1918.

Dear Marie,

We are celebrating Washington's birthday by taking a day off. We are having regular Spring weather after a short cold snap. Every few minutes this morning someone would remark "Wish we had them darn horses back," and believe me "them's my sentiments," too. You should see our radio class in the new stables. We have big tables and a number of buffers and a large blackboard
