

"WITH THE COLORS"

(3)

The way in which you answered the question~~s~~ about Rockford made me feel a great deal better - for I have often thought of it. Don't think for a minute that you have ever offended me in the slightest way.

I do think it was wrong for me to kiss you when we said goodbye. Thanksgiving for your sake - because you know I can't always call you my little girl. Things like that make me love you all the more Marie, but I must think ahead a few years.
