this welter of "busy body-ness" in splendid mental and physical condition. I believe that I wrote a satisfactory paper for the Mass. Board of Bar Examiners but I am not definitely certain.

Although I devoted my efforts to achieve a definite scholastic goal, yet I did not neglect the current news events. During the past two years my analysis of the international perplexities has been un-