

"WITH THE COLORS"

Thursday March 21, 1918.

Dear Marie,

Well what do you think of the hair? Let it grow about as long as the law will allow, and now nearly all of it will come off or the "cooties" will get me if I don't watch out.

Now Marie don't judge boys too harshly. You will find that your boy friends will be just what you make them. No matter what a boy may apparently think of you, he will,
