

"WITH THE COLORS"

April 2, 1918.

Dear Blanche,

Well to think of what you must think of me now for not writing sooner. I got all your letters etc. & stamps, also Mrs. V.'s fudge. Yankee. It looked pretty much as if we were going to leave until today. The motorcycles were all crated and only the bare necessities are left unboxed. It was rumored that we were booked for joining the Sixth Division at Ft. Oglethorpe, Georgia. The Co. Clerk is very busy and I am working
