March 25, 1939.

Dr. Forrest C. Allen,
Hotel Morrison,
Chicago, Illinois.

Dear Dr. Allen:

Western Union informed me that there is a correction in the wire from the Fred Medart Manufacturing Company - the date should be Friday, March 31. I have wired them as follows:

> "Dr. Allen at Hotel Morrison, Chicago. Believe he would be interested in your invitation if date would not conflict with another engagement. He will communicate with you."

When their letter comes I will forward it to you at Chicago. It should probably arrive here Monday, since it did not come in this morning's mail.

Sincerely yours,
