July 2, 1941

Dear Doctor Allen,

Before I left school I asked you if I might have one of the guarding jobs at the pool again this year. You asked me to write and remind you of this. I still earnestly want the job and will certainly appreciate your consideration.

Very truly yours
Bob Cohlmeyer